

Navy League Foundation Announces 2018-2019 Scholarship Winners
Children of Sea Service Family Members Awarded a Total of $52,000 for School Year

ARLINGTON, Va. — The Navy League Foundation, the Navy League’s premier program to support the children of the men and women of the sea services through scholarships, has announced its 2018-2019 scholarship award winners.

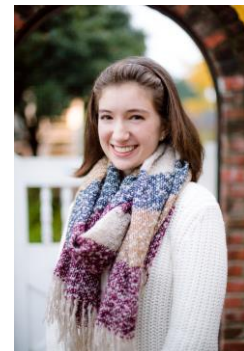

The recipients are selected through a rigorous application process, taking into account student academic achievement, aptitude test scores and essay response questions. The Alaska Sea Service Scholarship is managed by the Navy League Foundation and is chosen by the U.S. Navy. The remaining scholarship categories are selected via committee from the foundation. This year’s six winners rose to the top of out of the total of 243 applications received for the 2018-2019 school year.

Alaska Sea Service Scholarship Winners

Olivia Apitz is a graduate of Kodiak High School, where she graduated with distinguished honors. She was a member of the National Honor Society and the National Society of High School Scholars. In addition to participating on the Kodiak swim team, where she and competed in the state championship meet twice in relays and the 100-meter backstroke, Olivia spent countless hours volunteering in her community homeless shelter and interning at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Olivia is attending Virginia Tech this fall, with a major in human nutrition, food and exercise. She plans to pursue a career in dentistry.

Marguerite Flynn is a graduate of Petaluma High School in California, and prior to that attended Heritage High School in Leesburg, Virginia. During high school, she was a Civil Air Patrol cadet, where she earned the Billy Mitchell Award. She participated in the lacrosse team, where she was team captain; Health Occupation Students of America; the Military Appreciate Club; and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She has a love for science, technology, engineering and math, and is currently focusing on science during her studies at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia.

Capt. Ernest G. “Scotty” Campbell, USN (Ret.), and Renee Campbell Scholarship Winner

Emma Jensen is a graduate of Sunnyslope High School in Phoenix, where she was student body president, president of the National Honors Society and a junior leader in Younglife, the school’s Christian youth group. In addition, she played on the school’s badminton team, which won the state championship in both her junior and senior years, and was a founding member of the school’s robotics team, which went onto compete in the For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology (FIRST) Championship in Houston in April 2018. She is attending the University of Virginia, where she is pursuing a degree in civil engineering.

Rockwell Collins Scholarship

Trevor Larter is a recent graduate from East Gaston High School in Mount Holly, North Carolina, where he participated in soccer and Awana, an international evangelical Christian volunteer organization. He earned Junior Marshall status for ranking in the top 10 of his junior class, and he earned the Highest Academic Average award in five of his classes. He is attending LeTourneau University in Longview, Texas, and is majoring in mechanical engineering.

Rear Adm. William A. Sullivan, USN (Ret.), Scholarship

Hayden Noblet attended Scripps Ranch High School in San Diego, where he organized a chess club, plays guitar and studies music theory. He is currently pursuing a degree in biochemistry from California State University San Marcos and hopes to become a forensic scientist or work in biotechnology.

Subic Bay-Cubi Point Scholarship

Sarah Powell, of Wills Point, Texas, is involved with the Girl Scouts of America, the National Honor Society, the Texas Christian Athletic Fellowship and the Texas Christian Athletics League. She participates in track and field and volleyball. She is an artist, singer, and dancer and has won third place in her division at the American Country Dance Association. She is currently attending Trinity Valley Community College.

Continuing Scholarship Recipients

Captain Winifred Quick Collins USN, (Ret.) Scholarship: Ashley Pearson of Stafford, Va.

RADM William A. Sullivan, USN (Ret.) Scholarship: Dominic Garza of Alpine, Calif.

Jack and Eileen Anderson Scholarship: Caleb Harding of Camp Lejeune, N.C.

USS Mahan Scholarship: George Gladstone of Marietta, Ga.

Subic Bay-Cubi Point Scholarship: Jonathan Dyer of Hernando, Miss.
Gladys Ann Smith Greater Los Angeles Women's Council Scholarship: Shanahan Europa of Oxnard, Calif.
Planning Systems Incorporated and Engineering Scholarship: Henry Hill of Kaiserslautern, Germany
RADM William A. Sullivan, USN (Ret.) Scholarship: Ian Roberts of San Diego, Calif.
United Armed Forces Association Scholarship: Juliya Key of Honolulu, Hawaii
Albert Levinson Scholarship: Danika Weaver of Sitka, Ark.
John G. Brokaw Scholarship: Jackson Ross of Boerne, Texas
Wesley C. Cameron Scholarship: Bailey Martin of Lodi, Calif.
Jack and Eileen Anderson Scholarship: Mackenzie Harrison of Flagstaff, Ariz.
Navy League Foundation Scholarship: Erin Ward of Virginia Beach, Va.
Jewell H. Bonner Scholarship: Easton Pittman of Franklinton, La.
Harold Wirth Scholarship: Payton Garland of Jonesborough, Tenn.
John J. Schiff Scholarship: Thomas Gibbons of Beecher, Ill.

The Navy League Foundation gave out a total of $52,000 in scholarships for the 2018-2019 school year.

###

Media Contact:

Danielle Lucey
Senior Vice President of Communications
dlucey@navyleague.org
(703) 312-1580

About Navy League Foundation

The Navy League Foundation is the premier program to support the children of the men and women of the sea services through scholarships. The Navy League Foundation exists through the generous donations that help defray the cost of college educations for the children of sea service families and the Sea Cadets.

About Navy League

The Navy League of the United States is a national association with nearly 50,000 members who advocate for a strong, credible U.S. Navy, U.S. Marine Corps, U.S. Coast Guard and U.S.-flag Merchant Marine. Founded in 1902, at the suggestion of President Theodore Roosevelt, the Navy League is a civilian organization dedicated to the education of our citizens, including our elected officials, and the support of the men and women of the sea services and their families.